

SUMMARY

Billy designs digital solutions for enterprise needs — specializing in complex technical systems, AI-driven experiences, and scalable troubleshooting frameworks. He bridges the gap between complex engineering and user understanding. He's also a great dancer.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

UX Content Designer, Design Lead (L6)

November 2018 – March 2026

GOOGLE CLOUD

- Promoted from tactical execution (L4) to horizontal leadership (L6), driving alignment across large Cloud teams to resolve high-ambiguity challenges.*
- Established UX strategy and design for Database Center, a unified management and observability dashboard for 9+ core database engines and data analytics services (including AlloyDB, Spanner, Cloud SQL, Bigtable, Oracle, BigQuery, and more).
 - Architected a modular, cross-product messaging framework, consolidating 300+ disparate notifications into a prioritized, context-aware system to facilitate troubleshooting (performance, queries, security, etc).
 - Translated complex telemetry into actionable fleet-level insights, creating a framework for serving AI-powered insights to users.
 - Partnered with engineering and product leadership to define the UX architecture and APIs for zero-to-one platform launches, driving AlloyDB and Database Migration Service from inception to General Availability (GA).

Content Strategist

March 2017 – November 2018

JPMORGAN CHASE

- Designed solutions to modernize the digital banking experience from onboarding to in-the-weeds mortgage services.*
- Triaged complex business requirements with design and engineering partners to streamline business account onboarding, make debt collection less scary, and make mortgage servicing easy.
 - Scaled a conversational, empathetic, and modern voice and tone across digital products and brands for a global consumer base.
 - Ushered content and designs through rigorous governance workflows, securing regulatory reviews (LOB, legal, compliance) without sacrificing speed-to-market.

Associate Staff Writer (Restaurants + Bars, Events)

October 2016 – February 2017

THRILLIST

- Authored hundreds of NYC dining reviews, trend features, and the weekly cultural guide "Everything New Yorkers Absolutely Must Do This Week".
- Curated high-performing digital content for the New York vertical, including the "Cheap Eats NYC" series and comprehensive neighborhood guides.

Associate Editor (Dining + Nightlife)

March 2012 – 2015

IN NEW YORK MAGAZINE + WHERE MAGAZINE

- Managed 5,000+ digital listings and authored monthly feature spreads, celebrity interviews (e.g., Anthony Bourdain), and gallery spotlights.
- Collaborated on art direction for print layouts while driving digital growth, contributing to a 72% month-to-month increase in site traffic.
